

Trustee Sharon Jaeger, 54, an Administrative Assistant at Aspirus, is a seventeen year veteran of the Village Board and serves as the Chairman of the Park & Recreation Committee and on the Finance Committee. She also serves as a member of the EMPD Joint Finance Committee and is a member of the Marathon County Board. In 2009, she was named the WI Park & Recreation Association Elected Official of the Year. Jaeger is married with two adult children.

“In these current economic times, my chief concern is maintaining the great quality of life we have in Weston with our taxpayers ability to support government. We have to spend our funds wisely and look for ways other than taxes to get things done,” said Jaeger.
